and Intoxicated Demons GmbH / Munich on the careful handling of the exhibition wall system of the ARTMUC art fair / INC art fair and its provider Art Fairs Service from Latvia.

With his/her signature, the participant confirms in a legally binding manner that he/she will handle his/her own artworks with care and caution when setting them up, in this case when hanging and attaching them to the booked wall length, and that he/she will avoid damaging them.

Prior to the start of installation by the participant, the wall system was checked for defects and damage by ARTMUC / INC art fair (here Intoxicated Demons GmbH / Munich) and the Art Fairs Service (Latvia). No damage was found on the walls, the power strips and the lamps.

The participant is obliged to handle the wall system with care. He/she is fully liable for any repairs or replacements in the event of damage caused by improper use of oversized screws, plugs or drills, all of which are not permitted for use and must be left in place.

The definition of what constitutes damage, deterioration or destruction of the wall system, the walls or the light spots is the sole responsibility of the organizer, Intoxicated Demons GmbH, and the exhibition stand wall provider (Art Fairs Service).

In the event of complaints, the repair costs or alternatively the costs for replacement purchases will be charged to the participant and the participant is legally obliged to pay these or otherwise provide a replacement, which is to be defined by Art Fairs Service in terms of material and quality.
